

Schule Schloss Salem gGmbH is currently looking for a House Parent (m/f/d)

who lives, works and supervises groups of students at the boarding school.

Who we are

Schule Schloss Salem is a state-recognised boarding school with around 280 employees. Since 1920, in the spirit of its founder Kurt Hahn, the school has been committed to educating personalities. The special quality of Salem is that it strengthens children and young people through communal experiences and at the same time opens up spaces for individual development. This special quality depends on well-trained, but above all committed employees who enjoy working in a diverse and multinational environment.

We are looking for

- People who enjoy working with children/young people from different cultures and are aware of their own role model function,
- People who enjoy accompanying young students on their way to becoming a critically thinking personality and
- People who enjoy living and working in the community of the boarding school.

You should offer

- a relevant (social) pedagogical qualification,
- Experience in working with young people and the flexibility and willingness to participate in a lively community,
- familiarity with reform pedagogical theory and a willingness to put it into practice in everyday life with children and young people,
- Joy in working with young people from different cultural backgrounds and
- the willingness to accompany various student activities.

Salem offers you

- An international living and learning community based on the foundation of a cosmopolitan and holistic education,
- A wide range of opportunities for shaping school and boarding school life and for active participation in school development. In addition, we offer you the chance for personal development through professional personnel management, evaluation and further training ,
- A boarding school apartment at a favourable cost. The apartment is attached to the students' living quarters, but is structurally separated (relocation costs can be partially covered),
- a salary based on the German national tariff for public service, supplemented by special boarding school allowance,
- a wide range of leisure activities on beautiful Lake Constance and in nearby Switzerland and Austria!

If this sounds interesting to you, we are looking forward to your application!
